Parsifal Enhances Services with Expert HST™ Audit Home Sale Transaction Audit

Palm Bay, FL, (June 10, 2015) – In addition to its comprehensive global relocation services and procurement technologies, Parsifal Corporation has rebranded and refreshed its specialized service program for auditing the home sale transaction which Parsifal has named as the HST™ Audit.

The HST™ audit program breaks down each category of the complex and costly home sale transaction into individual charges to confirm and justify that they are traceable, contractual and reasonable. All transactions are then analyzed together to ensure a consistent approach and discover any practices that generate ongoing unnecessary cost exposures. Cliff Cannon, CMO at Parsifal explains that, “Accuracy and confidence includes confirmed validity of all charges, ensures contract compliance, coordination and processing of error refunds with detailed yet independent and objective support. Parsifal remains dedicated to bring expert solutions for continued process improvement to the relocation industry worldwide.”

HST™ audit service features include: Traceability (examining all charges for client authorization and traceability to its source); Contract Adherence (to ensure that all costs, services, fees, interest charges, referral fees, and timelines are in contract compliance); Reasonability (confirming reasonable charges, and whether costs are market competitive for the location, season, and/or duration); and Trend Analysis (to facilitate solutions for continued process improvement, by analyzing the trends within your files compared to the relocation marketplace).

With over 30 years of history protecting the industry with relocation auditing expertise, Parsifal continues to expand its unique offering with a wide array of other services including, home sale auditing, billing support, consulting and policy exception management. These key services are combined with various technology products, all designed to provide quality RPT, or relocation procurement technology such as, MyReLoWorks®, MoveMetric® -Domestic MMD™ and International MMI™. Parsifal is committed and focused to provide a full spectrum of support for its different types of clients including corporations, relocation management companies (RMCs), service providers and government agencies.
